

Nose plug

Our Nose plug is a Mitchell Mount accessory that goes directly onto the end of any MovieBird telescoping crane. This accessory allows a remote head to be mounted straight out from the arm when the shot or the environment demands it. The nose plug also allows for the standard under-slung or over-slung mode if so desired.